Cemetery Tour

Approximately 150 people attended the 4th Annual Twilight Cemetery Tour on August 31st. It was a beautiful evening in a tranquil and beautiful spot, where four of the cemetery's occupants' life stories were re-enacted. Gary Fahrner acted as Johnny B. Clark; Charles Dawson as Olaf Quaale; Janet Kuller as Gladys Taylor; and Art Kuller as Walter Taylor. The audience was spellbound and the re-enactors did a tremendous job. Thanks to Diane Baker of Novelty Cemetery Association for organizing the event, recruiting re-enactors, and writing the scripts.

CULTURE

We are grateful to 4culture, the King County Cultural Services Agency, for their support in the preservation of our heritage.

Art and Janet Kuller, re-enaction as Walter and Gladys Taylor

Gary Fahrner re-enacting as Johnny B. Clarke

Surviving the Great Depression in the Snoqualmie Valley: An Original Readers' Theater Presentation

*Monday, November 5, 7:30pm
Held at Duvall Visitor Center
15619 Main Street, Duvall.*

Presented by the Duvall Historical Society with support from KCLS, 4Culture and Country Collections.

This dramatic presentation highlights the local history of the Great Depression. Learn how people managed to survive, in the words of those who lived through it.

Hear about the “stills in the hills” that sprang up in response to Prohibition.

And enjoy a live performance of the music of the era, featuring local musician and historian Bob Antone.

Reasonable accommodation for individuals with disabilities is available; please contact the library prior to the event if you require accommodation.
