HOW THE RIVER SHAPED THE VALLEY
WHY ARE HAS NO ONE FOUND DINOSAUR BONES IN WA?
Figure 2.18 Three stages in the tectonic evolution of the Canadian Cordillera: a. end of Early Cretaceous and Late Jurassic regime of terrane collision, indentation and lateral escape; b. end of Late Cretaceous and Paleocene regime of left-lateral transtension; c. end of Early and Middle Eocene regime of left-lateral transtension.
"Puget Lobe" ice sheet covering present-day Puget Sound
Seattle 17,500 years ago

- 3000 ft
- 603 ft